GREAT INDIANA
STATE FAIR
2007

AUGUST 8★19

THERE'S NO BETTER TIME!

The 2007 Indiana State Fair features a new program that highlights a Hoosier homegrown agricultural product. This year's featured product: corn.

Although we all know there's more than corn in Indiana, there aren't any crops that are in any higher demand. Every day, corn touches every person in some way. From the sweet corn we eat to feed for livestock to the corn ethanol boom! As many as 6.2 million acres of that will be grown right here in Indiana.

To celebrate, the Indiana State Fair has created these unique corn features:

- Lots of maturing corn stalks growing all over the fairgrounds
- The Gazebo Gift Shop decorated as a giant basket of corn
- A new corn-based Indiana State Fair signature food
- A special corn cooking contest in the Home & Family Arts dept.
- A celebrity corn shucking contest in Pioneer Village August 15
- Indiana State Fair American Cornhole Tournament with finals in the Farm Bureau Building August 19
- Free Pop Weaver Popcorn microwave popcorn given away at the gates August 11
- A children's corn cob toss in the Riley Fun Park on Kids' Day, August 13

And if that isn't enough, you can always enjoy a freshly cooked ear of roasted sweet corn throughout the 12 days of your GREAT Indiana State Fair.

WELCOME TO THE 2007 INDIANA STATE FAIR!

It's time once again for one of Indiana's greatest traditions: the Indiana State Fair. For the 151st time, the State Fair honors the best that Indiana has to offer, and I'm pleased you've decided to join us for this wonderful celebration of Hoosier heritage.

Indiana has always been one of America's leading agricultural states and the State Fair showcases its grand traditions. This year is the "Year of Corn" at the fair, so while you're enjoying the animals, competitions, music and midway, please take a moment to find out more about one of Indiana's top crops and why it is so significant to the Hoosier economy. I hope you will also be able to join my wife Cheri as she leads the Heartland Walk for Health on August 11.

Past, present and future, there's plenty to celebrate in Indiana. I hope this year's State Fair helps you do just that.

Sincerely,

Mitch Daniels
Governor

INDIANA CURIOSITIES

A Walk Thru the Wacky Side of Hoosier Life

Did you know that there's a "Wizard of Oz Museum" in Chesterton, Indiana? Have you ever seen the world's largest rocking chair, which is in Amity, Indiana? Can you believe that an Alexandria family has been adding layers of paint to a baseball since 1977 and it now weighs more than 550 pounds?

These are just a few of the mind-boggling displays you will see when you visit "Indiana Curiousities: A Walk Thru the Wacky Side of Hoosier Life." Based on a book written by local author and media personality Dick Wolfsie, the exhibit uncovers interesting oddities from all corners of our state.

The exhibit opens at 9 a.m. each day of the Fair, and is located in the Old National Bank Grand Hall.

Enjoy the Fair... Wash Your Hands!

One of the best parts of the Indiana State Fair is getting close to all the different animals. The safest way to enjoy the animals is to make sure to wash your hands after each time you have contact with any of them. This is especially true for young children.

As you stroll around the fairgrounds, you will notice dozens of hand-sanitizing stations and restrooms.

We have four prominent hand-washing stations in various areas

(see box below). All of these amenities are there for your convenience and we hope you will take advantage of them, especially if you are preparing to enjoy some of your favorite Fair foods. In fact, you should make sure to clean with soap and hot water before you eat.

Be smart, stay healthy. Pet the animals, then WASH YOUR HANDS! It's the best way to enjoy your Great Indiana State Fair.

The Indiana State Fair has four hot-water hand-washing stations around the grounds for your convenience. You can find them in these locations:

- Biofuels Main Street
(in front of the Pepsi Coliseum)
- FFA Pavilion (petting zoo)
- Indiana State Fair Goat Mountain (next to DNR building)
- Riley Fun Park
